

Response to ERCOT Public Announcements:

At this time, we are not anticipating the same issue as other areas of Texas. We always encourage our customers to conserve energy where possible so they can help save on their bill and to help reduce strain on the grid during peak demand during the day. If this circumstance were to change, we would notify our customers through a formal announcement including media.